

002.

1. Located in the upper part of the hind shanks of the greyhound are the overdeveloped and powerful thigh muscles enabling it to make short, yet powerful sprints in race.
2. _____ second in size to Jupiter, Saturn has a mass much smaller than that of Jupiter.
  - When
  - Despite
  - While
  - Nevertheless
3. Given the difficulty of mastering the subtleties of the violin, there is not difficulty understanding why there are few children proficient in playing it.
4. The Homestead Act of 1862 granted those who ventured westward _____.
  - to receive needed and desired land
  - the land they both needed and desired
  - needing and desiring land
  - where they most needed and desired land
5. Most of American high school students claim they know how to read, yet many of them cannot do so at a high enough level to participate in modern society.
6. From the simplest single-cell organism floating in prehistoric oceans _____ all forms of life now inhabiting the earth.
  - evolved
  - had evolved
  - evolve
  - evolving
7. Zirconium is a metallic element with a high melting point and is widely used metal alloys.
8. _____ is the earthquake that is most widely remembered, it was actually the fire that ensued that caused the most damage in San Francisco in 1906.
  - While
  - Being
  - Whereas
  - Although it
9. After the Gold Rush in California in 1849 came dramatically higher number of immigrants than had been seen in the previous year.
10. Architect and founder of the University of Virginia, Thomas Jefferson built his house Monticello overlooking the campus in Charlottesville, Virginia.

↓ Answers<sup>1</sup> ↓

---

<sup>1</sup> Answers: DCC BAA DDA C